

Season 1 (2016)

Unfazed by the intense danger of their sport, Brazilian bull riders seek fame, fortune and professional titles in the US.

1. Shining Knows No Borders

Inspired by former world champion Adriano Moraes, a group of Brazilian bull riders invade the pro circuit in America for their shot at glory.

2. A Harvest In August

The Brazilians enjoy the camaraderie and comfort of being on their home turf each August for the legendary Barretos International Rodeo event.

3. The Thrill Is Gone

Rookie phenom Pacheco emerges as a threat to top-ranked American favorite J.B. Mauney, while Alves, Vieira and Nunes struggle to find their form.

4. The Outsiders

The Brazilian families discuss the difficult adjustment to life in America. Robson Palermo takes a beating but perseveres. Nunes alleges judging bias.

5. Glory And The Price Paid

The best riders and bulls arrive in Las Vegas for the World Finals. Marchi competes despite a painful injury. One rider reaches his breaking point.

6. Being Mortal

As injuries mount, the Brazilians battle Mauney to the end at the World Finals. One rider walks away from the sport, while the others forge ahead.